Preschool discussion:

Parent notes: When Moses grew up went to live in Pharaoh's house. Moses saw an Egyptian being mean to one of God's people (the Israelites) and Moses killed him, so Moses ran away. God saw his people suffering and so he called Moses back by speaking to him through the burning bush. God wanted Moses to ask Pharaoh to free his people from slavery.

1. Have you ever made an excuse?
2. God asked Moses to do something he didn't want to do. Why was Moses afraid? (He knew the Egyptians didn't like the Israelites and he was afraid they wouldn't listen to him)
3. Did God leave Moses alone while he was doing this special job? (No, God sent his brother Aaron with him and gave him powers to convince the Egyptians to listen to him)
4. Did God forget that His people, the Israelites, were suffering in Egypt? (No, he was sad they were suffering and had a plan to rescue them)
5. God calls us to do His work too and he never leaves us alone. What work might we be called to do for God? (obey our parents, help a friend, be kind to someone who is mean to us, read the Bible)

God gave Moses everything he needed to help the Israelites. Stay tuned for more of the story next week...

Preschool prayer: Thank God that he has a plan for us and that he never leaves us alone! Ask God to help you obey Him each day.
